Using Blog Post Formats

Created April 22, 2020 | Author Rohit | Category General

When you write a blog post, you will notice a box to the right of your text editor called Format. Within this box are the 4 format options: Image, Gallery, Video and Audio. Choosing Standard will result in a normally-formatted blog post, while each other options has a unique design associated with the format type.
